GAS WRECKEDUTSUBE REFINERY IS TARGET FOR 50 B-29s

BY LEIF ERICKSON

Guam, Wednesday, June 27 (AP)—Nearly fifty B-29s struck the Utsube River oil refinery, Japan's principal producer of aviation gasoline, in a precision demolition attack before midnight last night.

The raid followed by half a day the greatest Superfortress demolition pinpointing of Honshu industries in which nearly 500 of the sky giants blasted 10 targets with 3,000 tons of bombs.

The Utsube refinery is located near Yokkaichi, 18 miles southwest of Nagoya on Ise Bay. Since the destruction of fuel centers at Tokuyama and Otake on May 10, the Utsube plant was the enemy's largest remaining producer of aviation gasoline.

The city of Yokkaichi was heavily damaged in a fire raid June 18.

Some fire bombs fell into the Utsube refinery area in that attack, causing slight damage, but last night's strike was the first with the Utsube plant and storage area as the primary objective.

Arsenals Smashed

Liberators struck the Kuriles again Monday, bombing installations at Kurabu on Paramushiro. Marine fighters and bombers ranged over the Sakishima group of the southern Ryukyus, the Marshalls, the Palaus and Yap.

The Marianas-based B-29s, escorted by army Mustang fighters from Iwo Jima, smashed at aircraft, gun and shell factories in the Nagoya, Osaka and Kobe areas of Honshu in the earlier (Tuesday) raid. The strike from medium height.

All the targets had been hit in previous fire bomb and demolition raids by Superforts of the 21st bomber command, some as recently as last Friday.

The B-29 bombardiers yesterday centered their high explosives on two airplane factories and three ammunition and ordnance plants in the Nagoya area; the largest army arsenal and biggest propeller factory in the empire, at Osaka; two aircraft plants at Kaganigahara, 20 miles north of Nagoya, and a plane factory at Akashi, 10 miles west of Kobe.

(The 20th airforce headquarters in Washington reported five Superfortresses were missing after the raid. The announcement said only slight fighter opposition and meager antiaircraft fire were encountered. Returning crews reported "good to excellent" results.

GENERAL CHOOSES DEATH

Okinawa, June 26 (AP)—The be-muddled bodies of Lt. Gen. Mitsuru Ushijima, commanding Japanese general on Okinawa, and his chief of staff have been found in shallow rock graves on the southeast tip of the conquered island. They had committed hara kiri.

HARMON IS FATHER

Burbank, Calif., June 26 (AP)—A 7-pound daughter was born last night to Movie Actress Elyse Knox, wife of Lt. Tom Harmon, former University of Michigan football star now stationed near here with the army air forces. The child has been named Sharon Kristan Harmon.

NIPPONESE GIVE UP ON OKINAWAMany Come From Hiding
And Surrender To Yank Patrols

Guam, Wednesday, June 27 (AP)—Emerging from caves, cane fields and brushy valleys, scores of Japanese carrying surrender leaflets gave themselves up to American Tenth army troops yesterday.

The day's total of prisoners, including hundreds of Nipponese captured at rifle point or driven from caves with grenades, was 802, increasing to 9,493 the number of enemy troops in stockades on Okinawa. The figures were given in Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz's communiqué today.

Yank patrols continued their mop-up operations throughout southern Okinawa.

A number of Japanese planes appeared over the Okinawa area Monday night but did no damage with the few bombs they dropped, the communiqué reported. Twelve raiders were destroyed by anti-aircraft fire and combat air patrols.

The Japanese came over in a dozen very small waves. They included some slow, short-ranged float planes. Ground crewmen said they recognized an old single-engine Pete biplane with floats. That type plane normally is used for reconnaissance.

Many Okinawan civilians and some Japanese soldiers in southern Okinawa still were wandering into American hands.

One group of Japanese soldiers, however, was discovered trying to make its way to the rugged northern end of the island for possible guerrilla activity in the hills. The troops were wading, neck deep, in the surf off the southern end of the islands. They were captured.

Liberalized Tire
Rations Continued
For Passenger Cars

Washington, June 26 (AP)—OPA will continue its liberalized tire rations through July by issuing more passenger car casings than are being currently produced.

Announcing that 2,500,000 tires would be available for rationing the B and C card motorists next month—the same number as in June—OPA said it would dip into stocks in order to meet summer weather replacement needs.

Production during the next three months will be about 2,000,000 passenger tires monthly, OPA reported.

Truck and bus tire quotas will be larger than the June totals, OPA said, but will continue far short of needs and are unlikely to be increased in the near future.

Army Wears Out
900,000 Tires In European Sector

Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force, Paris, June 26 (AP)—American army vehicles wore out 900,000 tires during the eleven months from D-Day to V-E Day, ordnance headquarters of the European theater of operations said today.

The 500,000 vehicles, ranging from jeeps to giant tank carriers, used on the continent, initially were shod with 2,400,000 tires and were issued 1,595,127 replacements.

Get War Stamps
Out Into Action,
Treasury Advises

Washington, June 26 (AP)—The treasury issued today an urgent appeal to every American household to dig the war stamp albums out of the dresser drawer and turn them into war bonds.

"Stamps in a partly-filled book are not working for you," said Ted R. Gamble, national war finance director.

Meantime Robert W. Coyne, national field director of the war finance division, said the bond drive now drawing to a close has been "the toughest assignment for war bond volunteers of any since the beginning of the war."

Coyne announced E bond sales as $2,971,000,000, or 74 per cent of the national quota.

Total sales are $20,791,000,000. This figure is divided into $6,670,000,000 of sales to individuals and $14,121,000,000 to corporations.

The corporation figure now is above the 14-billion-dollar overall quota for the whole drive and is more than twice the 7-billion-dollar individual quota.

The drive officially ends Saturday but the accounting period runs on another week through July 7.

The treasury recalled that during the 4th war loan the school children of the nation conducted a search for partly-filled stamp books. They called it a "treasure hunt." In February, 1944, this hunt brought out 4,644,476 albums containing nearly $60,000,000 in value of stamps to be converted. This was double the amount of stamps converted in each of the two preceding months.

CHINESE CLEAR
INVASION COASTAdvancing Troops Within
165 Miles Of Shanghai
As Japs Retreat

BY SPENCER MOOSA

Chungking, June 26 (AP)—Chinese troops have ripped 165 miles up China's "invasion" coast toward Shanghai, advancing within 165 miles south of the great seaport in a new, two-day pursuit of withdrawing Japanese forces, the Chinese high command said tonight.

Sweeping along the south shore of Taichow Bay, 450 miles west of American-held Okinawa, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's troops have battered to the Linhai (Taichow) city area south of the great industrial Hangchow region, a communiqué said.

With the new advance the Japanese had been cleared from a 365 mile stretch of China's vulnerable east coast. The Chinese opposite Formosa hold the entire coastal area south to Japanese-held Amoy. In the last five weeks, the Japanese have abandoned 240 miles of coastline north from Foochow to Linhai.

The Chinese burst forward along a coastal highway to the Linhai area from Hwangyung, 54 miles northeast of Wenchow, engaging Japanese rear guards and striking within 111 miles southeast of the city of Hangchow, the communiqué disclosed.

Swarms of American bombers and fighters ranged over a 2,000-mile aerial front in China from Inner Mongolia to the Canton-Hong Kong area, giving Japanese airbases, railroads and shipping one of their most widespread pastings in recent weeks.

LUZON CLEANUP
ABOUT FINISHEDLiquidation Of Last
Enemy Stronghold
Approaching

Manila, Wednesday, June 27 (AP)—American ground forces converging in the Cagayan valley of northeast Luzon on trapped Japanese are less than 20 miles apart and "liquidation of the last enemy stronghold is approaching," General MacArthur announced today.

The southern column advanced 14 miles through the provincial capital of Tuguegarao, captured last week by Igorot guerrillas, and reached the town of Igwig.

The northern column, consisting of the 11th Airborne Division and units of the Sixth Army, drove south to liberated Lal-Lao and Gattaran and advanced another two miles.

To the west, the U. S. Sixth, 25th and 33rd Infantry Divisions, combined rugged mountain ranges, MacArthur reported, in mopping up scattered points of enemy resistance.

Patrolling and mopping up operations continued on the big southeastern island of Mindanao.

Air forces based in the Philippines, flying in support of the widespread ground activity, dropped 292 tons of bombs on enemy targets while other planes kept up the blockade of Formosa and the Pescadores, directly west of Formosa.

Woman, 25, Killed
In Rifle Quarrel;
Husband Wounded

Adrian, Mich., June 26 (AP)—A shooting fray at a farm near Devils Lake resulted in the death in Ann Arbor today of Mrs. Leora Wheaton, 25. Her husband, Kenneth, 31, was reported in critical condition in a hospital here.

Prosecuting Attorney L. B. Kuey talked with Wheaton in the hospital today but details of the conversation were not disclosed.

Wheaton's father, John, who lives in a nearby house, last night summoned sheriff's officers to the farm, where they found Kenneth Wheaton in the yard with a bullet in his back. Mrs. Wheaton was slumped on a chair in the house with a bullet wound in her forehead.

The husband and wife had been quarreling all day, John Wheaton told deputies. A rifle believed to have been used in the shooting, was found on the floor near Mrs. Wheaton.

Two daughters, Judy, 4, and Julia, 2, survive.

Postal Pay Raise
Passes In Senate

Washington, June 26 (AP)—The senate today passed house-approved legislation granting general base pay increases to postal employees estimated to cost $150,000,000 a year.

The postoffice committee calculated the legislation raises postal pay for each employee between $300 and $400 a year. Minor differences still have to be ironed out in conference between house and senate.

HUTSON CONFIRMED

Washington, June 26 (AP)—The senate today confirmed the nomination of John B. Hutson of Maryland to be undersecretary of agriculture succeeding Grover B. Hill of Texas, who resigned.

President Flies
Back East After
Drama In Frisco

BY ERNEST B. VACCARO

San Francisco, June 26 (AP)—President Truman flew eastward from San Francisco tonight, his part played in the drama of a United Nations conference which wrote a script for peace.

Mr. Truman's "Flying White House" took off from Hamilton Field at 9:25 p. m., Eastern War Time, to make a leisurely trip to his native Missouri, before he hands the senate at Washington on Monday the finished United Nations Charter. He is confident, he told delegates, that the senate will ratify it.

He was the leading man in the historic windup of the conference today, a busy 12 hours into which he packed talk of both peace and war.

He plunged into the closing activities of the 50-nation meeting on peace enforcement after calling in Admiral Chester W. Nimitz to congratulate him on navy victories in the Pacific.

As usual, Mr. Truman was up and about this morning before anyone else on his staff was out of bed. His rapid course the rest of the day included his 17-minute address to the conference, talks with delegates on how to make their work here endure, and reception for California hosts to the conference.

Among those he saw were Chairman Connally (D-Texas) of the senate foreign relations committee upon whom will fall the task of piloting the postwar peace charter to senate ratification after its submission to hat body next Monday.

Other callers during the day included Field Marshal Jan Christian Smuts, prime minister of the Union of South Africa.

SPEDDY SCHEDULE SET

Washington, June 27 (AP)—The senate made its plans today to receive from President Truman next Monday the historic San Francisco world charter and a drive was started immediately to get it ratified by August 1.

Meantime, Cordell Hull, former secretary of state, issued a statement from his sickbed at Bethesda, Md., naval hospital hailing the charter as "one of the greatest milestones in man's upward climb toward a truly civilized existence." He appealed to all the United Nations to ratify it as soon as possible.

The senate's majority leadership revealed that:

1—The president will address the senate at 12:30 p. m., EWT., Monday as he formally turns over the document designed to set up a world organization to promote peace.

2—The Foreign Relations Committee will hear from two of its members who were delegates to the San Francisco conference just how the charter proposes to work.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) is scheduled to address the senate Thursday, Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), on Friday.

3—Hearings of the committee, it is hoped will last two weeks; debate on the floor another two weeks, a final vote one month from next Monday.

There was some disagreement however that this schedule can be met.

FATHERS OF 4
STAY IN ARMYMichigan Solon Loses
Fight For Discharge
Of Family Heads

BY WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

Washington, June 26 (AP)—A $38,500,285,951 war department appropriation for the fiscal year beginning July 1 won unanimous house approval today after a move to force the army to discharge fathers of four or more children was defeated.

The big measure, boosting to the war department since July 1, 1940, went to the senate by a voice vote.

There was almost no debate on the huge money items in the measure congress hopes will provide the "Sunday punch" to defeat Japan, but more than two hours were spent discussing the army's point system of discharges and the relative merits of butter and oleomargarine in a fighting man's diet.

Representative Engel (R-Mich.) charged the fight to force the discharge of the dads. He offered an amendment, which was defeated by a non-record vote of 115 to 89, to allow any soldier in the enlisted ranks to obtain his discharge by application prior to September 1 if he is the father of four or more living children.

More Food Stamps
Valid For July 1

Washington, June 26 (AP)—Five blue stamps for processed food and red stamps for meats and fats in ration book form will become valid July 1, the OPA announced today.

Each stamp is worth 10 points, making a total of 50 blue points and 50 red points. Stamps which become good July 1 can be used through October 31.

The new stamps:

Blue—J1, K1, L1, M1, N1.
Red—A1, B1, C1, D1, E1

World Must Now
Use This Pact,
Delegates Told

San Francisco, June 26 (AP)—Key phrases from President Truman's address to the final session of the United Nations Conference: You assembled in San Francisco nine weeks ago with the high hope and confidence of peace-loving people the world over.

Their confidence in you has been justified. Their hope for your success has been fulfilled.

The charter of the United Nations which you have just signed is a solid structure upon which we can build a better world.

This charter * * * was proof that nations like men, can state their differences, can face them, and then can find common ground on which to stand.

We have tested the principle of cooperation in this war and have found that it works * * * united strength will force Japan to surrender.

You have created a great instrument for peace and security and human progress in the world. The world must now use it!

By their own example the strong nations of the world should lead the way to international justice.

Let us * * * each in his own nation and according to its own way, seek immediate approval of this charter—and make it a living thing.

I am sure that the overwhelming sentiment of the people of my country and of their representatives in the senate is in favor of immediate ratification.

All fascism did not die with Mussolini. Hitler is finished—but the seeds spread by his disordered mind have firm root in too many fanatical brains.

The forces of reaction and tyranny all over the world will try to keep the United Nations from remaining united. * * * but I know I speak for every one of you when I say that the United Nations will remain united.

By this charter, you have given reality to the ideal of that great statesman of a generation ago—Woodrow Wilson.

By this charter, you have moved toward the goal for which that gallant leader in this second world struggle worked and fought and gave his life—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

HIGHWAY WAGE
BOOST ORDEREDIncreases Retroactive To
Jan. 1 Affect 292
Employees

Muskegon, Mich., June 26 (AP)—Step wage increases for 292 state highway department employees, retroactive to Jan. 1, were ordered here today by the state civil service commission.

The commission's meeting was held in Muskegon for the first time as a gesture in honor of its chairman, John C. Beukema.

Thomas J. Wilson, personnel director for the commission, was instructed to see that the pay boosts are put into effect.

Salary rates for various classes of positions in other departments were discussed but no other definite action was taken.

Wilson said step increases are being granted regularly in all departments except the liquor control commission and the highway department.

The highway department's failure to grant such increases he attributed to Harry Ward, deputy highway commissioner, who he said personally scrutinizes any jumps in pay despite eligibility of employees under state rules.

Wilson said the liquor control commission has been bringing up to date current increases of its employees, but added there has been delay because personnel records "were pretty incomplete."

Killer Of Divorcee
Sentenced To Death

Washington, June 26 (AP)—Joseph D. Medley, escaped convict and murderer of Mrs. Nancy Boyer, today was sentenced to die in the electric chair Nov. 30.

The handsome Medley was convicted of killing Mrs. Boyer, 45-year-old divorcee, following an all night poker party in her apartment in March.

Justice T. Alan Goldborough pronounced sentence in district court after denying a defense argument for a new trial.

FIFTY NATIONS
SIGN WORLD
PEACE PLEDGECHARTER ONLY THE
BEGINNING, SAYS
STETTINIUS

By Douglas B. Cornell

San Francisco, June 26. (AP)—United Nations statesmen signed today the charter of a new world organization and President Truman closed one of the great assemblies of history with an assurance that "You have created a great instrument for peace."

"The world must now use it!" Mr. Truman said.

Addressing the final plenary session of the United Nations conference, the chief executive appealed to delegates of 50 nations to make the charter "a living thing," to seek its immediate ratification. He promised:

"I shall send this charter to the United States senate at once. I am sure that the overwhelming sentiment of the people of my country and of their representatives in the senate is in favor of immediate ratification."

Great Day In History

Secretary of State Stettinius introduced Mr. Truman by saying simply, "Fellow delegates, the President of the United States."

As Mr. Truman spoke there were frequent outbursts of applause. Members of the army, navy and the marine services, including WACS, WAVES and SPARS, stood at rigid attention in a semicircle behind the president.

GUATEMALA LAST

San Francisco, June 26 (AP)—The final signature—that of Eugenio Silva Pena of Guatemala—was affixed to the United Nations charter at 7:20 p. m. Pacific War Time tonight.

Pena, who completed the signing ceremony begun at noon, is Guatemala's ambassador to the United States.

"With this charter," the president said, "the world can begin to look forward to the time when all worthy human beings may be permitted to live decently as free people. * * *

"If we should falter in the future in our will to use it, millions now living will surely die. * * * Let us not fail to grasp this supreme chance to establish a world-wide rule of reason—to create an enduring peace under the guidance of God."

Gavel Falls

President Truman finished speaking at 8:23 p. m. (Eastern War Time) and was given a standing ovation by the delegations.

After announcing that the interim commission would meet tomorrow to start laying plans for bridging the gap between the conference and ratification of the new league, Stettinius raised his gavel and said:

"I now hereby declare the United Nations Conference on International Organization adjourned."

His gavel fell. It was 8:29 p. m. (Continued on Page Two)

MIGRANT LABOR WILL BE AIDED

Food Rationing Advice Planned For Mexicans And Other Workers

East Lansing, (AP)—Mexican Nationals and Jamaicans who come to Michigan as migrant laborers to assist with farm crops will receive instruction in the ways of food rationing, buying and preparation.

Under a plan expected to be in operation in about two weeks, foreign workers entering the state will receive ration books with "liners" which explain the rationing system. Wall cards, which will be placed in each worker's living quarters, will chart proper diets and the price and point-of-cost of foodstuffs common in the area.

Mexican Nationals and Jamaicans already in Michigan also will benefit by the plan for arrangements are being made to have field workers contact such persons. About 3,300 Mexican Nationals, 6,300 Texas Mexicans and 700 Jamaicans are expected to enter Michigan between now and the end of July.

"Liners" and wall cards will be in Spanish for Mexican Nationals and Texas Mexicans and in English for Jamaican workers. The program also is being designed to enlist the aid of storekeepers and growers in easing the confusion of the foreign workers.

The plan is being drawn up by Ruth J. Peck, assistant supervisor in charge of the Woman's Land Army, Mrs. Vivian P. MacFawn, specialist in nutrition at Michigan State College, and Mrs. Lillian P. Erwin, farm labor program director of the War Food Administration.

New Job Placement Offices Established In Upper Peninsula

Detroit, June 26 (AP)—Establishment of 29 new offices throughout Michigan to provide an expanded job placement service for war veterans was announced today by Edward L. Cushman, state director of the War Manpower Commission.

Cushman said a streamlined procedure operated by specially trained personnel was being inaugurated in all local offices of the United States Employment Service.

Separate sections for the reception, interviewing referral and job counseling of the veteran will be set up in each USES office, according to the announcement, and insofar as possible the personnel who handle veterans' affairs will be veterans themselves.

The new office locations include: East Dearborn, Wayne, Northville, Lincoln Park, Mt. Clemens, Pontiac, Ypsilanti, Albion, Coldwater, Dowagiac, Hastings, Three Rivers, Mt. Pleasant, Vassar, Lake, Big Rapids, Greenville, Tawas City, Grayling, Cheboygan, Ontonagon, L'Anse, Menominee, Munising, Manistique, Newberry, St. Ignace and Iron River.

Itinerant service is being set up in Marquette, Ontonagon, Flat Rock, Gwinn, Lake Linden, Norway and Baraga.

Aussies Reconquer Borneo Oil Fields; Set Afire By Japs

Manila, Wednesday, June 27 (AP)—Australian Ninth division forces completed the reconquest of the great west Borneo oil fields Sunday with the capture of Miri, whose 300 oil wells have been blazing under the Japanese torch for the last three weeks.

The town of 14,500 per-war population was deserted when the "digger" column, which had landed at the Luton refinery center several days earlier, pushed through wrecked storage tanks, power stations and office buildings, a headquarters spokesman said today.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's communiqué today did not mention the operation, confining its report of Borneo operations to air activity.

There likewise was no confirmation of reports which the Tokyo radio has been circulating for more than a week that Allied warships have been active off Balikpapan, on the eastern coast of Borneo.

Men's Suit Pinch May End By 1946

Washington, June 26 (AP)—More civilian overcoats by November and more men's suits by January were predicted by the War Production Board today.

WPB said military demands for woollens and worsted fabrics are declining to such an extent that the agency is considering reducing the 100 per cent freeze on worsted tops and on wool yarn before the respective expiration dates of July 15 and August 18.

FIFTY NATIONS SIGN WORLD PEACE PLEDGE

(Eastern War Time). The band swung into the Star Spangled Banner. When it was over, Stettinius took the president's arm and walked off the opera house stage.

U. S. No. 38

The conference delegation chiefs, most of them in their native tongues, had preceded the president in addressing the closing conference session in San Francisco's War Memorial opera house.

Mr. Truman walked across a court to the opera house from the auditorium of the Veterans Memorial building, where he had watched the American delegation sign the charter, starting at 3:16 p. m. (PWT.) A dozen more delegations still had to affix their signature after the final plenary meeting.

With the rest of the American delegation at the United Nations Conference lined up behind him, Secretary of State Stettinius eased into a blue armchair and patted his name swiftly and firmly on the charter of a new world organization dedicated to peace.

Stettinius glanced up, spoke briefly. The other delegates stepped forward in turn to place their names on the charter—Senators Tom Connally and Arthur Vandenberg, Representatives Sol Bloom and Charles A. Eaton, Commander Harold E. Stassen, Dean Virginia Gildersleeve.

The U. S. A. was the 38th nation to sign.

In the president's pocket was an address, the last speech of hundreds that had resounded for 63 days in the council halls where the charter of a new world league was fashioned.

Great Task Ahead

Side by side, each in a dark blue serge suit, the president and Stettinius marched in for the signing ceremony at 3:15. A stride away on the right, the chief executive smiled and nodded while onlookers applauded and the secretary pulled a pen from his pocket and put down his name.

"We are all aware," Stettinius said, "that this is an extremely historic occasion. The charter for world peace has been completed. But this is not the end—it is only the beginning. A great task lies before us."

"With faith in our cause, good will in our hearts, we will complete this task. I am confident that with God's help we will reach our goal."

He arose from the chair, and Mr. Truman shook his hand. The next American to sign was white-haired Senator Connally. He sat at the table with a broad grin.

At noon, with the eight delegates of China leading the way, the conference framers had started filling solemnly up to a blue table in the auditorium of the Veterans building. One by one they inscribed their names on a document sure to occupy a great spot in history.

Representatives of 50 nations formally approved the charter last night in final form, unanimously and with turbulent applause and cheers. But to give it life and to bring into being a new United Nations organization, 28 nations now must ratify it.

President Truman arranged to present the constitution for a new world order to the senate Monday, senate officials disclosed in Washington. Democratic leaders said two weeks of committee hearings and two more of debate on the floor should bring the document to a vote.

Indications piled up that it may be an overwhelming vote for ratification, and that other nations will approve the charter quickly enough to put it into effect before the year ends.

Controversies Ironed Out

Of the first 26 nations to answer an Associated Press questionnaire here, 20 forecast ratification by their governments by the close of 1945. The other six declined to name a date but raised no barriers to ratification.

Before it becomes operative, the charter must be ratified by the United States, Britain, China, France and Russia, plus 23 of the other 45 United Nations.

Approval of the charter in final form by this conference was a mere formality. All the controversies had been resolved days before, in the give-and-take of democratic debate and compromise.

Then exactly at noon today the signing of the charter began, in a blue, gold and buff auditorium. This was the scene, with something of a Hollywood atmosphere: A round blue table centered on a circular carpet of deeper blue. A semi-circle of the flags of the United Nations at the rear, their white standards standing out against a dull blue balustrade.

At the back of the table was a single niche—like a bite out of a tremendous pie. Back of that, a carved walnut armchair upholstered in blue. On the table, two microphones, a pad of paper, a green blotter, ink and pens and brushes. At the sides of the auditorium and at the rear, scaffolding for photographers and brilliant Klieg lights.

Brushes For Chinese

A few minutes before noon, a Chinese attaché came in to smear an ink stick on a stone ink slab and arrange the brushes the Chinese delegates were to use in painting the characters of their signatures.

Exactly at noon, Dr. Wellington Koo, acting head of the Chinese delegation, stepped through a gap in the flags. Attired in a business suit, he moved to the table, drew up the chair. He dipped a brown brush with an ivory knob into the ink. He signed the charter, then a companion document to set up an interim commission to carry on until the new world organization formally is created. Seven other Chinese delegates signed in turn.

The last Chinese characters went onto the charter at 12 minutes after noon. Then Andrei A. Gromyko, ambassador to the United States, began signing for Russia.

And so it went, on and on for hours; delegates signing, delegates speaking briefly.

The American delegation had planned to sign last. But it arranged to sign at President Truman's convenience before the final plenary session.

During the day, the chief executive remained in his suite at the Fairmont hotel, glancing now and again at the wording of his own address, his most important to date in the field of foreign policy and international relations.

Plan Honor Roll For Escanaba Twp.

Escanaba township is planning to place an honor roll of the names of its men and women in military service in its township hall, and names are being requested by Supervisor Earl Paquin and William Beauchamp, township clerk.

Names of the men and women in service from Escanaba township should be either mailed or telephoned to either of the men named above. Supervisor Paquin's telephone is No. 643-E3.

The plan is to have the honor roll prepared and ready by the Fourth of July, when a dance is scheduled to be held that evening at the township hall.

Veterans Councils Develop Community Employment Plans

Lansing, June 26 (AP)—Col. Philip C. Pack, director of the Office of Veterans' Affairs, today directed local veterans councils to develop coordinated veteran employment plans for their communities.

Pack said he initiated the action in anticipation of a time when veteran employment will become a major problem.

He suggested local chairmen call special meetings of employment subcommittees and promised that the state office would act as a clearing house for the exchange of community employment plans.

Restaurants Close In Mattoon; Husky Workers Go Hungry

Mattoon, Ill., June (AP)—This city of 15,000 today became a B. Y. O. L. town—bring your own lunch—for visitors as most restaurants closed, claiming they were foodless, pointless and helpless.

Transient war workers asked "when—and where—do we eat?" and an engineer said husky steel workers engaged in war plant construction "can't do that kind of work on a lettuce sandwich and a coke; they need meat and potatoes, even for breakfast."

Mayor George W. Smith, appealing to restaurateurs to reopen, invited them to talk the situation over at a city council meeting.

Ten of Mattoon's 12 major eating places were closed, city officials said the other two were expected to close, and many smaller lunchrooms had shut down until July 1. Owners claimed meat and potato shortages, lack of red points and lack of help forced them to suspend operation.

Three new plants are under construction, chiefly by imported labor living in hotels and depending upon restaurants for food. In addition, the community is a terminal point for the New York Central and Illinois Central railways, with train crews and mail clerks laying over here.

Aircraft Standards For Private Planes Proposed By CAA

Washington—Aircraft standards for private planes, proposed by the U. S. Civil Aeronautics Administration, are intended to make flying safer for ordinary citizens who will purchase and use large numbers of family and other private planes after the war. They are minimum requirements, to be enforced by the government if finally enacted into federal regulations. Manufacturers will be free to build better planes if they wish.

The proposed regulations are based upon the belief that the prospective pilot deserves the assurance of the government on five basic facts about the plane he proposes to purchase. The first is that the plane will be strong enough to withstand normal service strains and rough air if flown within the limits outlined in the airworthiness certificate.

The others relate to stability in the air, controllability and response to the controls smoothly and positively, rate of climb great enough to permit safe flight under unfavorable conditions, and proper landing speeds.

Single-engine airplanes, under the proposals, will have a landing speed low enough to permit safe emergency landings in unprepared fields of reasonable size and smoothness.

The three beasts necessary to the making of fine perfume are the whale, musk ox, and civet.

ALGER COUNTY VALUATION CUT

Munising — The Alger county board of supervisors at their monthly session, held Tuesday June 26, approved reduction in the county's valuation.

In 1944 the valuation was set at $7,701,711 and for 1945 is set at $7,572,200 making a reduction of $129,511.

A $104,605 of the deduction is accounted for in the lowering of the valuation of the personal tax within the city. One of the principal reasons of the decreased valuation within the city is in the inventories of stores and factories, which were found to be short of stock and raw materials from their 1944 inventories.

Within three townships the valuation was lowered, Au Train, Onota and Rock River. Four were raised somewhat, Munising, township, Burt, Limestone and Mathias. Grand Island township's valuation remained the same for 1945.

Other business transacted by the board was mainly the motion of Supervisor Boogren to table the resignation of Edward F. Bartels from the Alger county road commission. The resignation of Gust Johnson who has been custodian of the courthouse since 1926 was accepted and the board approved the hiring of David Depew to succeed him.

Charles Collins, 38, Stricken Suddenly

Munising—Charles Collins 38, a resident of Munising the past two and a half years, died suddenly at his home Monday evening June 25 at 8 p. m.

When first coming to this city he was employed by Walters grocery and for the past year he has been employed by paint contractors.

He was born in Ishpeming on November 22, 1906 and had previously resided in Marquette before coming here.

Among his immediate survivors are his wife Grace, and seven children: Three sons, Charles Jr., Robert, James; four daughters, Glenora Mary, Barbara and Sharon; three brothers, Cecil, Escanaba; Thomas, Ishpeming; William Detroit; one sister, Mrs. William Toms, Jackson, Mich.

The body was removed to the Beaulieu funeral home and will remain there until the time of the funeral. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Belgian King May Have To Abdicate

BY DANIEL DE LUCE

Brussels, June 26 (AP)—King Leopold III of Belgium tonight weighed the frank counsel of his political friends and enemies, and all signs indicated that a decision to abdicate was inevitable.

Louis De Brouckere, Socialist senator, vice president of the Social International and head of the "Entente Democratique" against the king, carried to Leopold's quarters at St. Wolfgang, Austria, a flat "no" from Liberals, Socialists and Communists to any compromise concerning the monarch's return.

Lt.-Gen. Walter Gangshof Van Der Meersch, a trusted adviser to the throne, said he felt unable to form a government for the king, and declared a statement about the abdication by Thursday.

WORKERS OPPOSE KING

Brussels, June 25 (AP)—Dr. Albert Marteau, minister of public health and spokesman of the Communist party, tonight said more than 1,000,000 Belgian workers "stood ready to walk out in a general strike against any government that may be formed on behalf of King Leopold."

PLANET VENUS SIGHTED IN DAY

Was Mistaken By Coast Lookouts For Jap Balloon

San Rafael, Calif.—The planet Venus, which is bright enough to be seen in daylight, was mistaken by lookouts for Jap balloons, a number of which have been reaching the Pacific Coast.

Inmates at San Quentin Prison, where regular watches are kept for the enemy balloons, reported recently that a Jap balloon could be seen very high and nearly overhead, though slightly south of the prison, states Leavitt Baker, Jr., deputy in charge of identification communication and records. Several days later at about the same time a balloon was again reported in approximately the same position.

Upon contacting the Lick Observatory, Mr. Baker learned that the planet Venus was in the exact position indicated, and, though it had reached its maximum brightness late in May, was still visible to the naked eye in full daylight. Checking with the Interceptor Command, he learned that hundreds of reports had been received

Basswood Project Failed, But Site Is Used For Farm

Iron River—Remember back in 1935 when the federal government purchased the Arthur C. Gould farm at Basswood for a rehabilitation settlement and paid the owner some $35,000?

Have you ever wondered what became of it?

The Reporter made a casual investigation this week and found that the 280 acres and buildings are under rental to Sidney Stebbins, a beef cattle man and potato grower, by the United States forestry department to which the land was transferred by the department of agriculture and made a part of the Ottawa National forest.

Stebbins has been on the land for several years, and inasmuch as there is no provision for sale, he may remain longer if he wants to, assuming the forestry service is agreeable.

The Basswood settlement promised at the time to become one of the pets of Rex Tugwell and his federal department, devised to provide employment for the bleak and hungry upper peninsula.

They envisioned a sawmill manufacturing lumber from timber cut selectively from the Ottawa National forest and surrounding private stands.

Plans had progressed to the point where blueprints were ready for a community settlement, with its new homes, community center and provision for stores, schools, and churches.

The residence area was to be platted into plots large enough for small scale farming so the workers could supplement their income by spending some time in the fields during slack mill operations. Those who wished could also go into the woods and harvest logs to be decked and cut later in the mill.

The project had progressed to a point where purchase of the Gould farm was negotiated.

It encountered snags when private timber owners in the vicinity on whom the mill had to depend for part of its log source, declined to enter long-term commitments with the government.

Without contracts with these operators, the government concluded the project could not operate successfully, giving workers continuous employment.

Meanwhile Tugwell moved out of office and some of his satellites and the Basswood settlement withered and died.

A Charter for Peace

A charter for world peace was signed yesterday at San Francisco and with the establishment of this plan designed to guarantee the peace of the world in years to come are carried the hopes and fervent prayers of modern civilization.

The San Francisco charter is no cure-all for the troubles of the world. Its words alone will never quench the flareups in international relations that kindle wars. The important thing about the United Nations peace charter is that 50 of the world's most powerful nations have seen fit to discuss the causes of war and pledge themselves to act in concert in the future to prevent another conflagration that would lock the world in mortal combat.

It is the spirit, rather than the words of the San Francisco charter that raises the hopes of humanity for world peace. Anyone looking for flaws in the terms of the charter can find many debatable points. Unlike the League of Nations that developed after World War I, the United Nations charter is realistic in its approach to the problems of war and is consequently better prepared to solve those problems.

The charter is already assured of approval by the United States senate. From this day on the United States, which backed away from the League of Nations structure after the last war, is dedicated to lend its mighty weight to the cause of world peace. Without this support no peace plan would have much more than a spark of hope for its success.

A War Criminal

ANY doubt that Emperor Hirohito of Japan should be included as a war criminal was dissipated Monday when the emperor ordered his home guard troops to commit suicide rather than be taken prisoner in the event of an invasion of the Japanese homeland.

The suicide order, of course, is designed to enforce the most fanatical resistance by civilians as well as soldiers when, as and if the Allies invade Japanese soil. This order could be enforced only through the emperor.

The Japanese emperor is more than a ruler. He is the spiritual head of his people as well. Actually, as a ruler he has little power since most of the governing authority has already been usurped by the Japanese admirals and generals who are the real rulers of Japan. As the reigning deity, however, the emperor maintains tremendous control over the fanatically religious Japanese.

The suicide order will mean wholesale slaughter of the people of Japan in the event of an invasion of the home island, because when the invasion comes, the Allies will have so much power that its success will be guaranteed.

Hirohito is a war criminal of the worst kind and he should be so recognized by the Allied Nations.

Civilian Goods

THERE can be no certainty about the manufacture of civilian goods until the probable duration of the war against Japan becomes more definite, but prediction as to individual items range from optimism to pessimism.

Some electrical refrigerators will be coming off the assembly lines in 60 to 90 days. A degree of reconversion already has been accomplished in electric clocks and electric irons. Vacuum cleaners are in production and it is predicted some stores will have them in 30 days.

Gas and electric stoves, aluminum pots and pans are on the way and production in these items should be more than a trickle by fall. The washing machine situation is not so clear, but manufacturers are hopeful consumers will get some in the third quarter and more in the fourth quarter of this year.

Floor and table lamps will not be available in quantity for six months to a year. The government has stockpiled the best woods and the better grade furniture cannot be produced. Rugs and draperies will remain scarce. There is no prospect of new radio sets in the immediate future, but an effort is being made to provide new tubes for old sets.

Supplies of most of these consumer items will be inadequate for many months. Retailers advise their customers to keep an eye on household appliance departments because what they receive will be snapped up quickly.

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—All of our top military commanders have now testified in favor of universal military training after the war. They are unanimous in their view that this is essential to our security in the post-war world.

Their word naturally has very great weight. But there was one serious gap in their testimony. They said nothing about the importance of technical and scientific training in relation to this program.

This might not seem such a glaring omission if it were not for the fact that the army's record on the use of highly trained personnel is bad. As Hanson Baldwin pointed out in the New York Times the other day, the army's handling of our present and future scientists "has been inimical to the welfare of the nation." This must not be ignored any longer. Certainly, for the distant future, it is of vital importance to have a clearly defined policy of scientific and technical training. That is the real basis of security today.

—SHORTAGE OF DOCTORS—
The National Research Council and the American Council on Education recently surveyed the whole field and presented some startling conclusions. Take medicine and health, for example.

Even if enrollments, admissions and graduations are maintained at present levels, there will be a shortage of some 19,000 doctors available for civilians as compared to the pre-war period. Even before the war, there were areas woefully lacking in properly trained doctors.

We sometimes seem to think that medical care is a luxury. If you look at the number of young men rejected by selective service—about four out of every ten—you get a different idea. The nation's health is the source of the nation's strength, and we neglect it at our peril.

Dr. Morris Fishbein and Dr. Victor Johnson of the American Medical Association have made repeated trips to Washington to try to persuade military authorities that some corrective steps were necessary. Because of the selective service policy of refusing deferment to pre-medical students, the AMA fears that many medical schools—the smaller and lesser known ones, especially—may have to close down. If their entering classes are cut in half this fall, then they simply can't afford the doubled cost of educating our future doctors.

Because of the shortsighted refusal of selective service in 1943 to defer any more pre-medical students only about 10 per cent of freshmen medical classes in 1946 will be filled by students in the navy program and none in the army program. Maj. Gen. Lewis Hershey, head of selective service, says that the medical schools can get students out of civilian life.

But a careful study by the heads of those schools indicates not more than 50 per cent of entering classes this fall will come from civilian sources, and certainly it will be impossible to get 90 per cent of their students from this source next year. Hershey has said that returning veterans will provide hundreds and even thousands of new medical students. A checkup shows, however, that in eight large universities ordinarily supplying 800 to 900 freshman medical students annually, just 42 veterans have enrolled in pre-medical studies; and of this number, only 28 were considered probably acceptable as future physicians.

—VIEWED AS DISCRIMINATION—
Secretary of Navy James Forrestal, replying to the plea of medical educators and scientists, said it would be discrimination if pre-medical students were deferred. It would mean that families with enough money to finance a costly medical education would have their sons deferred, while those who couldn't afford it would not have this opportunity.

This is hardly an answer, since the military departments are now paying for the medical education of thousands of young men in uniform. These are men deferred because they were already in medical schools.

Moreover, the council on education has a program. It proposes the selection of 8,000 high school graduates for deferment this year on the basis of their aptitude in science, their predilection for medicine, emotional stability, and so on. Deans of medical schools would play a major role in this screening process.

We talk about first-class care for returning veterans. That may mean up to 15,000 doctors. Here in Congress and in the state legislatures are many bills calling for medical clinics at cost, and for health insurance. That means more and more doctors.

It is not alone in medicine that our failure to train our keenest youth is tomorrow obvious. In another column tomorrow I want to pursue this further.

Gracie Allen Says—

Wow! Did you see the pictures of President Truman in that swish sweater? Let's have no more kidding from you men about women's wild hats. I think the president should be congratulated. It's about time men were showing a little gumption in wearing more style and color. Why, President Truman might do for men's sweaters what Lana Turner did for women's!

Perhaps men will begin to copy the president as they used to copy Prince Albert and the Prince of Wales. Maybe if I get George a swish sweater I could get him out of his old Prince Albert.

I only hope the president brings his sweater to the next big "S" meeting. Premier Stalin goes around in a marshal's uniform and Mr. Churchill is liable to break out in anything from a zipper suit to a fur hat. But let's see them try to top that sweater.

AGAINST IT—The Delta County Tavern Association seeks to have all licensed liquor establishments in the county close their doors at midnight starting July 1.

Close at midnight, that is, except on Saturday nights and during special celebrations.

John Gannon, chairman of the association's executive committee, told the Escanaba city council and the Delta county board that all members of the association are for the earlier closing.

The members report, Gannon said, that after midnight business drops off and "the customers get to be a little difficult." He added, "sometimes we have to help them on with their coats."

Well, Gannon told his story to the Delta county board the other day and asked that august body to approve the early closing, but it seems such an action would have no "authority," so the board didn't act.

Besides, a couple liquor licensees from the townships spoke up in opposition to the Association's effort to put the lid on at a more reasonable hour. One of the licensees reported that he did most of his business after midnight.

From this corner it would seem the county board might very well string along with the Association's efforts to cut the drinking hours. The city council is to adopt a concuring resolution, even though it also lacks "authority." The Association hopes township boards will do likewise.

—SMALL WORLD—The other morning an aide was having breakfast with Harold "Beaver" Beaton, former Escanaba resident recently returned from the Pacific. Sitting at a nearby table was Commander Rintoul Whitney, who was recently liberated from a Japanese camp in the Philippines.

"That's Commander Whitney over there," said the aide to "Beaver," who went over, introduced himself—and discovered that he was one of the guys who had helped liberate Whitney!

"Beaver" Beaton (where did he ever get that nickname?) is not only a former Escanaba resident. He is also a former Marquette University football player, and former prosecuting attorney of Mackinac county.

—NAZI PARTY LINE—Mrs. Vernon Wick, whose husband is a first lieutenant in Germany, has received a number of battle souvenirs from him.

Some of the most recent and more interesting articles are two German field telephone sets. They are in plastic cases, are well made and appear to be the equal of anything the Americans might turn out. Lt. Wick has been 15 months overseas, about one year in Germany.

—NOT SO NICE—Cpl. John V. Olinger, home on furlough after 34 months with the air corps in Hawaii, and Lt. Harry Monson of the U. S. Navy, who has been four years in service in North Africa, Sicily, Salerno and Okinawa and is now home on leave, got together as guests of the Escanaba Rotary club a week or so ago.

They started comparing notes on Hawaii and decided that Spam and Waikiki Beach were both highly over-rated. The boys, especially Cpl. Olinger, are Spam conscious. He says it comes to them in one-gallon tins, with recipes for a dozen ways of preparing it.

Ten Years Ago—1935
George Fournier of Perkins was awarded a full week at the State Fair at Detroit as a result of the excellent showing that he made in the eighth grade exams. William Barron of Flat Rock was chosen as alternate to go if George would be unable to.

The ten highest in the junior and senior classes of the Freshman college was told today. Allan Beck, Leonard Sundquist, and Marie Halesky head the list for the class of 1935 and Vivian Amundsen, Robert Kamrath and Bernice Welter head the list for the class of 1936.

Arlene Joan Kramer entertained a number of her friends at a party celebrating her fourth birthday. Present at the party were Bonnie Mae Provo, Judy Shaw, Mary Jane Burnell, Eileen Heim, Mary Ellen and Jane Christensen, Betty Sherlock, and Laurel and Clinton Paulson.

J. O. Blixt and daughters, Grace and Eleanor and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Anderson of this city were among the guests at the silver wedding anniversary party for Mr. and Mrs. Gust Alexander of Iron Mountain.

Twenty Years Ago—1925
The anti-foreign feeling in China continued to grow unchecked. Feeling has spread along the coast and many Japanese and British nationals have made arrangements to leave the country until the feeling has died.

John Coolidge, father of the president, has taken seriously ill and President Coolidge has made arrangements to leave Swampscott where he has been on his vacation to go to Plymouth, Vt. where his father is staying.

Miss Gertrude Ederle has left for England where she will attempt to be the first woman to swim the English Channel. Since she is a crack swimmer her progress will soon be followed through-out the world.

he said grimly.

But to get into the swim at the over-rated Waikiki Beach—the beach is little, the waves are big, and there is coral to cut the bottom of your toes, says Cpl. Olinger. He knows, because he had the following experience.

Before he learned to swim very well he and another tyro in the water were drifting around Waikiki Beach on a surfboard. They couldn't do anything with the board, you understand, because they were afraid to let go. Then up swam a lovely mermaid and wanted to borrow the board. Rather than tell her he needed a pair of water wings, Col. Olinger and his chum let go and started to wade ashore.

They got there with their feet bruised and bleeding from the coral. The waves kept bouncing them up and down on the sharp stuff and they stumbled out, badly in need of first aid.

—CITY DEER—Mrs. J. C. Valind of 605 Stephenson avenue reports that the other morning on Fifth avenue north she saw a deer going down the street. This recalls the incident of a year ago when a deer ran into downtown Escanaba, crossed Ludington street, entered a clothing store and dashed out when the proprietor held another door open.

—JUNE AND DOLLARS—Escanaba banks these past few weeks have stacks of silver dollars reminiscent of the gambling hall of the Old West. Where the flood of cart wheels came from no banker is quite prepared to say without consulting the board of directors. But it seems a plausible explanation they have been stored-up for such occasions as silver wedding anniversaries, which usually occur in the month of June. The silver seems an appropriate gift for the celebrants.

Good Morning!

LONDON. George Bernard Shaw sent word that I would be welcome at his house, but that there would be no interview. "We will meet," he insisted, "not as Subject and Interviewer, but as one writer to another." Gabriel Pascal brought me there, to Ayot St. Lawrence, the Hertfordshire village which some day will become a shrine. Lady Astor arrived just before we did, to obtain from him an endorsement of her candidacy for Parliament. We walked through the living room, across the terrace and the sloping lawn, then down the bend to the makeshift hut in which G. B. S. writes.

"THE WAY to make him sparkle is by teasing him," said Lady Astor. "Watch." "G. B. S.," she told the tall, pale man who was wearing his brown tweed knickerbocker suit and turned-down panama hat, "this is the only honest newspaperman in America." Shaw, from whose face the pink has vanished and whose eyes no longer twinkle, said, as Lady Astor had predicted: "There is no such thing." I assured him that I would confirm his contention by publishing everything he uttered, including his dismay at hearing Lady Astor suggest that she would retire from politics to marry Mr. Shaw.

PASCAL then showed him some photos which had been taken the week before. Shaw studied the photos of himself. "Don't you like them?" Pascal asked. G. B. S. frowned and said: "Wait till you're 90 and see if you'll like ANY pictures of yourself."

"THERE should be better pictures of you, G. B. S.," said Lady Astor. "Our American visitor has a camera somewhere. Let him take some pictures of you." I went to the car where I had left both my camera and my cigarettes, because I had been warned that Shaw disliked posing for amateur cameramen, and would permit no smoking in his presence. I started to shoot close-ups. "No, no," he protested. "You should take pictures with a story. I'll tell you what to do." He directed me to a spot on the lawn. "I'll come out of my house and start walking away from you," he said. "Then you call on me, 'Oh C. B. S.' and I'll turn, express surprise, wave at you and walk towards you. Got that?" I followed his instructions, and as a result I now am in possession of a movie reel directed by, written by and starring George Bernard Shaw.

PASCAL discussed with him the current production of "Anthony & Cleopatra," in which Vivien Leigh is starred. Miss Leigh, now the toast of London because of her brilliant performance in "The Skin of Our Teeth," received from Shaw a copy of his "Anthony & Cleopatra." She requested Shaw to autograph it. "I can't," he told her. Miss Leigh asked him: "But why won't you autograph it?" G. B. S. replied: "Because the fact is, I can't write."

WE WALKED to the house next door to the home of Clare Winston, the artist who had painted two portraits of Shaw. The first showed him sitting majestically, his overcoat draped around him like a toga. "This," he said, "is a good advertisement—for an overcoat." Then he added, "As a matter of fact, I don't like any portrait of myself at my age." The second portrait showed him at work, his left hand gripping the wrist of his right hand, with which he writes, and directing its movement. The mirror in the portrait showed the back of Shaw's head. "I like that mirror touch," he confessed, "because the back of my head hasn't changed."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

Washington—Few people noticed one little item tucked away in the Army appropriation bill, but it gives significant insight into how War Department planners are thinking in terms of a next war. The item is $1,430,000 for horses.

Not a single cavalry operations has been used in the entire war. On the contrary, the Russians and British are now concentrating all their future war experimentation on rocket bombs which they think eventually can reach the moon. Meanwhile, a German document has come to light whereby their scientists and industrialists are instructed to begin research for new war weapons.

Yet U. S. Army chiefs are still spending money on horses and asking for peace-time conscription of the type France had before she fell in 1940.

In the new army appropriation bill, the budget bureau scaled the army's horse allowance down to $1,240,000 which included the cost of breeding plus the purchase of 338 new riding horses. However, the army, maneuvering backstage, got Congressman Case of Custer, S. D., a city which still lives on the memory of that cavalry-riding old Indian fighter, General Custer, to insert an additional $190,000 in the bill. This would purchase about 1,000 new riding horses.

In other words, it looks as if the army was sliding right back to its old peace-time ideas when it used to battle every year with Congressman Ross Collins of Mississippi, the man who insisted that the army accept an appropriation to buy tanks and its first flying fortress when the brass hats wanted neither.

Quizzing Gen. John F. Preston, then inspector general of the army, Congressman Collins once inquired about why the taxpayers needed to spend money for horses at San Antonio, an aviation base. "Are they for the officers, or the women folk?" Collins asked.

"For the officers," the inspector general replied.

"For airplane duty?" the Congressman persisted.

"They must be flying steeds," grunted the Congressman from Mississippi.

AIR VS. LAND—

On April 2 this column told how army advocates of a big land army and peace-time conscription had got busy about three months ago and drew up plans whereby the air force would be reduced to the same size it was in 1936—about 18,000 men. This would make it one of the smallest air forces in the world, with few modern planes and little money for experimentation.

On the same day this column was published General Hap Arnold, by pure coincidence, submitted a violent protest against this skeletonized air set-up. Arnold used language which only he can use to warn that the U. S. would be in for disaster if we did not keep a big air force and allow money for developing new types of planes.

As a result, the old-line army boys beat a hasty retreat. A new plan, increasing the air corps 500 per cent over 1936 is now proposed, it would give the air force around 100,000 men. However, the brass hats still want a big land army of a couple of million conscripted men.

—TRUMAN REVIEWS JAP WAR—

For about 25 years the air force has been hoping they would be given an opportunity to report direct to the president on their version of how a war should be fought. This opportunity came at last when, two weeks ago, President Truman requested the air force to present their plan on how Japan could be defeated with the most economical cost in human lives.

A military plan against Japan had been worked out under Roosevelt, but when Truman came in he thought it wise to review the whole matter. Therefore, he asked the three major services—the Navy, the Army, and the Army Air Forces—to present their plans on the most effective strategy for defeating Japan.

It is no secret that the army's plan long has called for a mass attack by land troops. Discussion of this has been quite open. However, the air forces have believed that by stepping up the bombing of Japan, by wiping out all factories and making the entire population homeless they might be able to force a surrender without a mass invasion, always costly in human lives. Even if they could not force a surrender, air force strategists have believed they could so pulverize Japan that about 400,000 American lives could be saved during any later invasion.

It was expected that the army, navy and army air forces would each report their plans direct to the White House. However, unknown to President Truman, General Marshall, Chief of Staff, went to Gen. Ira Eaker, who commands the Air Forces in General Arnold's absence and asked him not to submit a separate air-forces report—in other words to go along with the army's invasion plan.

General Eaker bowed to his superior, General Marshall. So President Truman will get no separate report from the air forces disagreeing with the land-army strategists.

—SEVERE SHIPPING SHORTAGE—

General Arnold, who was in the Philippines at the time, was prevailed upon by General MacArthur to go along with the plan of a land-army invasion. However, Arnold recommended an all-out air assault before the invasion to reduce the enemy's ability to fight.

German civilians who have been lucky enough to be saved from the German soldiers now want the Americans to save them from the Russians.

CANAL HEARING THIS MORNING

Testimony To Be Taken At Courthouse In Escanaba

Hearing on the advisability of conducting a survey of the proposed AuTrain canal project will be held at the Courthouse in Escanaba at 10 o'clock this morning. U. S. army engineers will be in charge.

Testimony will be presented by a Delta county committee, headed by Probate Judge William J. Miller of Rapid River, which was appointed by the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce. A delegation is also coming from Alger county, led by Atty. Richard Nebel of Munising. Briefs in support of the project also will be presented by the Great Lakes Harbors association and the Mississippi Valley association, according to information received by Judge Miller.

All interested persons are invited to be present. Both oral and written testimony will be accepted.

Request for a survey was contained in the rivers and harbors omnibus bill passed by the present Congress. The proposed AuTrain Canal would bisect the Upper Peninsula over a 37-mile route from the train on Lake Superior to the Rapid River on Little Bay de Noc. Another hearing will be held in Marquette Thursday.

SES Will Expand Its Job Placement Service For Vets

OF expanded job placement service for veterans was announced yesterday by James M. Lundt, manager of the Escanaba office of the United States Employment Service.

For specially trained personnel on a stream-lined procedure, the U. S. Employment Service plans to give quicker service to the returning veteran. From the time the veteran enters the U. S. office he will be given special attention. Stepped-up procedure in the reception, interview, job counseling and referral of veterans will be set up in the U. S. office, in order to give the returning veteran the best possible service.

"We believe we can give the veteran better service by handling veterans' placement through regular office with these new special services," Mr. Lundt said. "We are stepping up our veterans' placement activities and cutting down the time which a veteran spends in the U. S. office."

"We have a veterans' employment representative, C. E. Olson, who is charged with this responsibility. We will be prepared to advise veterans of job opportunities in various fields. We are arranging special signs to identify the veterans' service and we will attempt to assign as many individuals as necessary to the work of reviewing and referring veterans to jobs. Our veterans' employment representative, too, will be in promoting the interest of veterans in the community and we work with employers to develop job orders for veterans."

Wickman Elected Salvation Army Board Chairman

Mayor S. R. Wickman was elected chairman of the Salvation Army advisory board at a meeting held yesterday at the Delta hotel. Other officers named were: chairman, B. V. Sommers; treasurer, M. N. Smith; and secretary, Capt. George Beckstrom. Farewell talks were made by Capt. and Mrs. Milton Anderson, who are leaving next week to take charge of the Austin headquarters of the Salvation Army in Chicago. A resolution, expressing appreciation of the splendid work by Captain Anderson and his wife during their two years in Escanaba, was adopted by the advisory board.

The little red railroad caboose goes modern. Bay windows are now being placed on Chicago and North Western Railway cabooses, supplanting cupola (insert) which was invented by North Western employe 82 years ago.

C&NW Railway Eliminates Cupolas On Its Cabooses

The cupola on cabooses of the Chicago and North Western Railway System, on which lines it was first introduced to American railroading 82 years ago, is headed for extinction.

In its stead, the little red car which trails all freight trains will have bay windows, according to L. L. White, vice-president in charge of operations for the railway system. The reason is that the cupola has outlived its usefulness as the trainmen's "watchtower" with the increase in height of freight cars. From now on as each North Western caboose comes into railway shops for general overhauling, the cupola will be removed and bay windows constructed for visibility along the sides.

The cupola-ed caboose was first introduced in America in 1863 by T. B. Watson, freight conductor of the Chicago and North Western Railway. In the summer of that year Watson's caboose through some accident received a hole in its roof. While on a run from Cedar Rapids to Clinton, Iowa, Watson rigged up a seat so that he could sit with head and shoulders above the roof. On reaching Clinton he asked the master mechanic, who was then building two new cabooses, to install elevated glassed-in enclosures.

Watson's idea was accepted and soon became standard in American railroading. So strongly entrenched was his idea that many states had laws making it mandatory for cupolas on all cabooses operated in their jurisdiction.

Rayfield Carlson Gets Bronze Star

Warrant Officer (Jg) Rayfield Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Carlson, Route One, Rapid River, has been awarded the bronze star for meritorious service, it has been announced.

The citation was "for distinctive service against the enemy during the period from July 14, 1944 to May 8, 1945 in Europe."

He is serving with the 7th Engineers Battalion and has been in service four years, three years overseas. He is expected to return home next month, probably for discharge as he has more than 100 points.

Cottage cheese, chilled and seasoned with salt and pepper, makes a good luncheon dish combined with sour cream.

The advisory board report for the past half year was read and approved. It showed that a total attendance of 1122 boys and girls was recorded at the recreation room during the winter. The Salvation Army's new character building camp at Newton Lake, Wis., near Marinette, will be ready for camping this season. Escanaba will have about fifteen children in attendance at the camp during underprivileged children's week July 14 to 21. Music, handicraft and Bible work at the camp will be July 21 to 28.

DOCK WRECKING TO BEGIN SOON

Two Carloads Of Equipment Arrive; Men
Being Hired

Two carloads of equipment to be used in dismantling the federal government ore dock in Escanaba have arrived here and dismantling operations will begin as soon as sufficient equipment is on hand, Glenn Myers, project superintendent of the Cleveland Wrecking company, reported yesterday.

W. J. Sunderman, personnel representative of the company, is interviewing applicants for jobs on the project at the United States Employment Service office here. He reported yesterday that about 175 men will be employed, including engineers, crane operators, bulldozers, timekeepers, laborers and carpenters. The union scale of wages will be paid for all classifications, it was reported.

Application blanks for employment may be obtained only at the U. S. Employment Service office. No applications will be accepted at the docks unless applicants have referred cards from the U. S. E.

The trestle approach and the dock timbers will be dismantled and resawed at a portable mill to be erected at the project site. The salvaged lumber, estimated at 12,000,000 board feet, will be shipped to other government war projects.

The equipment received here yesterday included bulldozers, cranes, etc. A crew of men is employed in the unloading operations.

Norbert J. Guindon Given Silver Star

Technician Norbert J. Guindon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Guindon, 704 South Sixteenth street, has been awarded the silver star for gallantry in action in Germany. Guindon entered the service Sept. 2, 1943, and went overseas in January, 1945. He was awarded the bronze star on Feb. 17 and the silver star recently.

His citation reads as follows:

"Norbert J. Guindon, 36830872, Technician Fifth Grade, Field Artillery Battery "C" 862d Field Artillery Battalion, for gallantry in action on 17-18 March 1945 in the vicinity of Ennsheim, Germany. During the initial attack on the Siegfried Line, Technician Fifth Grade Guindon in the face of intense fire, accompanied the leading elements of an assault platoon, carrying a heavy radio. Throughout the action, which continued for more than twenty-four hours, he remained in exposed positions and maintained radio communications. When the enemy launched two counter-attacks, Technician Fifth Grade Guindon, despite the burden of his radio, established outpost communications under enemy small arms and artillery fire. On many occasions it was necessary that he act in the capacity of a rifleman, aiding greatly in repulsing the enemy and inflicting heavy casualties. The magnificent courage and outstanding gallantry under fire of Technician Fifth Grade Guindon reflect the highest credit upon himself and are in keeping with the finest traditions of the Armed forces of the United States. By command of Major General Hibbs."

and John Pach of Perronville. During his visit here, he conducted services at Bark River during the illness of the pastor.

Mrs. Gust Carlson has returned to Escanaba after spending several months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Andziewski.

Party Held For Mr.
And Mrs. Belanger

Mr. and Mrs. George Belanger, 407 South Tenth street, were honored guests at a party held Saturday evening at the Recreation Center on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. A delicious lunch was served, and the couple was presented with a purse of silver, and many gifts. They also received congratulations and messages of congratulation. Hostesses at the party were Mrs. Tom Beauchamp, Mrs. Walter Snyder, Mrs. Delore Grenier and daughter, Mary Jane.

A high mass was held at St. Ann church on Saturday morning, the Rev. Fr. D'Amour officiating. Music was provided by the St. Ann children's choir, accompanied by Miss Bernadette Cosette. Leonard Moreau sang the "Ave Maria."

Following the mass, a 10 o'clock breakfast was held in the private dining room of Belle's Coffee Shop. The centerpiece of the table was a large anniversary cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

In the afternoon, open house was held at the Belanger home, attended by many friends who called to extend their best wishes. Hostesses at the open house were Mrs. Marceline Clement and Miss Melina Beauchamp.

Mr. and Mrs. Belanger were married on June 22, 1920, at St. Ann church, and have lived in Escanaba since that time. They have two children.

Out-of-town relatives and friends who attended the anniversary celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Earl DeLisle and family and Mrs. Roy DeLisle and family, of Munising; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gardner of Gladstone; Miss Melina Beauchamp of Chicago, and Mrs. Mary Laviolette of Oconto, Wis.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
CHURCHES

"Christian Science" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, July 1.

The Golden Text, (Hebrew 12: 12, 13) is: "Lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees; and make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (John 14:12): "Verily, Verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (147): "Our Master healed the sick, practiced Christian healing, and taught the generalities of his divine Principle to his students; but he left no definite rule for demonstrating this Principle of healing and preventing disease. This rule remained to be discovered in Christian Science."

Mary Nolden Will Receive Degree
At Marquette U.

Escanaba will be represented at the 1945 commencement exercises of Marquette university in Milwaukee, with Miss Mary A. Nolden, 407 First avenue south, included among the candidates for degrees.

Miss Nolden is a senior in the Marquette college of nursing, and a candidate for the degree of bachelor of science in nursing. She has been one of the most active and prominent coeds on the Marquette campus, being a member of Kappa Beta Gamma social sorority; the History club, the Sociology club and the Sodality.

Marquette's commencement exercises will be held in the main hall of the Milwaukee Auditorium on Sunday night, July 1, with the Rev. Peter A. Brooks, S. J., president of the university, conferring degrees on 467 candidates, the largest graduating class since the first year of the war and including the first group of students who have completed their education under the trimester plan.

The honorary degree of doctor of letters will be conferred on his excellency, Archbishop Francis J. Spellman of New York, and the honorary degree of doctor of science on Dr. Edwin B. Fred, president of the University of Wisconsin. Archbishop Spellman will deliver the commencement address.

Graduation week activities opened on Tuesday, June 26, with an alumni-senior picnic at the North Hills Country club. A highlight of this affair was the silver anniversary reunion of the Marquette class of 1920. A memorial mass in the Gesu church at 10 a. m. on Sunday, July 1, will be attended by the seniors and their guests.

Two Couples Wed
In San Francisco

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Anderson, State Road, announce the marriage of their daughter, Helen, to T/Sgt. Marion Luckey, of Columbus, Kansas. The wedding took place in San Francisco on June 3.

Sgt. Luckey recently returned from overseas, where he served for 32 months with the Air Corps. Another wedding of interest here is the marriage of Miss Marie Heinz of Joliet, Ill., to Wendell Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Anderson. The couple were united in San Francisco on April 21, and will make their home there at 102 Baker street. Mr. Anderson was formerly employed at the Western Union office in Escanaba.

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (147): "Our Master healed the sick, practiced Christian healing, and taught the generalities of his divine Principle to his students; but he left no definite rule for demonstrating this Principle of healing and preventing disease. RIALTO BLDG.CITY COUNCIL
VOTES BUDGETSum Of $74,646 To Be Raised By Taxes
This Year

Two unusually weighty matters, the annual appropriation ordinance and a proposal to hire the services of appraisal engineers to make a study of the assessed valuation of all property in the city, were acted upon at the regular meeting of the city council Monday evening.

The city accepted the appropriation ordinance which fixes the sum to be raised through taxation by the city in the sum of $74,646. The total budget has been set at $104,780.60 and the $30,134.60 not raised via the taxation route will be various funds, licenses, fines, fees accruing from the general, sewer, street and police funds and revenue secured from state and national sources and earmarked for certain purposes.

The various funds set forth in the budget and their amounts are: General Fund $18,875.00; Contingent Fund $3,322.60; Sewer Fund $5,550.00; Street Fund $23,003.00; Street Lighting $1,275.00; Police Fund $8,650.00; Fire Fund $11,330.00; Park Fund $750.00; Health $3,775.00; Engineering $7,100.00; Bond Fund $8,500.00; Interest Fund $2,680.00.

One new fund has been created in the ordinance. The contingent fund of $3,322.60, while not calling for any specific expenditure, and while not definitely slated for use, has been created to meet unforeseen needs if and when they should arise.

Mr. Manson also pointed out that of the $7,100 set forth in the engineering fund, $6,584 has been allocated from funds provided by the state planning commission to be used in a survey of the city's water, street and sewer systems in anticipation of the city's postwar plans.

Hire Valuation Appraisers
The council voted to accept an offer for services from the J. M. Clementshaw company of Cleveland, Ohio, to conduct a complete reappraisal of property values in the city and establish a basis for assessment of all taxable property in the future.

This firm, which specializes in surveys of this sort, recently completed such a survey for the city of Escanaba and the results, C. D. Manson said, were recommended as highly satisfactory—particularly in the matter of settling disputes arising out of unsatisfactory assessment ratings.

The survey will include all buildings in the city—residence property, commercial and industrial buildings—give a complete appraisal relative to the nature of their construction, age, value, utility, advantage of location and improvements. The results will be made available, through maps and a card index system, data that will be valuable for years to come in establishing the assessment rate of any piece of property in the city. City property will also be included in the survey. Formulas, scientifically established, will provide a tangible basis for assessors and their deputies to work upon.

City Manager C. D. Manson presented a report of the conference of public officials held at the Elks Temple Friday, a meeting which resulted in the securing of funds for the schools of Inwood and Mueller townships and for the city to be spent in the making of a preliminary survey for postwar projects.

Charles Isaacson appeared before the council and asked that the council give consideration to his request that lots in his Lakeside addition be platted and that street, sewer, water, and sidewalk facilities be extended to this part of the city. He stated that several people had signed their intention of building there as soon as assurance was given that the improvements would be extended. The matter was referred to the city manager for investigation.

The city manager reported that a new pier, replacing the one washed out in the high water of last spring, had been set in place and that the footbridge destroyed at that time would soon be completed.

Three milk dealers' licenses were granted as were also numerous beverage licenses throughout the city.

Ada Branch
Becomes Bride Of
Lt. Paul Grambsch

Among the June weddings of interest was that of Miss Ada Elizabeth Branch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Branch, 233 Walnut street, and Lieut. Paul Victor Grambsch, U. S. N. R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Rindolf H. Grambsch, 1743 South 29th street, Milwaukee, Wis. The ceremony was performed at the St. Alban's Episcopal church June 20 at 8 o'clock in the evening by Rev. Roger Sherman assisted by Rev. J. William Robertson.

The altar was beautifully decorated with large baskets of white snapdragons, carnations, gladioli, and feverfew. Each pew bore dainty badges of carnations and snapdragons tied with white ribbons.

Mrs. James Fyvie, the pianist, played a program of nuptial music. The traditional wedding marches were played at the entrance and recessional of the bride party. Donald Grambsch, brother of the bridegroom, sang "Ave Maria" by A. H. Rosewig.

The bride wore a becoming white chiffon crepe dress with a long veil and white accessories and carried a white orchid and prayer book. Miss Florence Sommer of Cro, Ill., maid of honor, wore an orchid and pink chiffon with white accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses. Her bridesmaids were Misses Patricia Taylor of Monroe, Viola Van Selus of Madison, Wis., and Shirley Anderson of this city. Donald Grambsch served as best man.

Mrs. Branch, mother of the bride wore black crepe with white accessories and wore a gardenia. Mrs. Grambsch wore white crepe with white accessories and wore an orchid.

A wedding dinner was served to 35 guests in the church parlors. A reception was held in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Oscar Anderson following the dinner with over one hundred guests present.

In the dining room, the attractive table was centered with a large tiered bride cake on a five inch base of white carnations. Four miniature figures resembling the bride's attendants were placed near the confection, each holding a part of the garland of dainty white feverfew and sweet peas which was draped gracefully to each figure. Beautiful baskets of gladioli and snapdragons were arranged about the room.

Immediately following the reception the young couple left for Lake Geneva, Wis., and points in the east. For traveling the bride wore a pink shantung suit with a black top coat and pink hat.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school and North Central college at Naperville, Ill. She has held teaching positions in Onaway and Gladstone high schools. The bridegroom is a graduate of North Central college and Midshipman's school, Columbia university. Before entering the service he was an instructor and athletic coach at Equality Township high school, Equality, Ill. He is now serving with the U. S. Naval Reserve, and has taken part in invasions of North Africa, Sicily, Italy and France.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mrs. Thora McCosch, Newberry; Mr. and Mrs. Rindolf Grambsch, Milwaukee; Herman Grambsch, Poy Sippi, Wis.; Mrs. Jean Roederer, Louisville, Ky.; and Miss Elleri, Naperville, Ill.

PRE-INDUCTION
LIST LARGESeventy County Youths
Take Pre-Medic Exams
In July

An unusually heavy draft of enrollees from Schoolcraft county in the near future is indicated by the fact that July's pre-induction call is for seventy men. Four are slated for induction. The date of the call has not, as yet, been announced.

Monday two contingents of five each, one for pre-induction physical examinations and the other for induction, left by bus for Marquette.

Those for induction, who left in the morning, were, John Barnes Jr., Francis Lintz, Edward Pelon, Gale Schnurer and Donald Burnette.

Those for pre-induction exams, who left in the afternoon, were, Frederick Losey, Verl Dirom, Clarence Selman, Bernard Hockstad and Vernard Rockstad.

Change in the draft status of the following men is announced from the local office of the draft board: George Orlich, I-C Disc; Clifford Heider, I-C Ind.; George A. Walker, 2-B; Russell J. Vanderville, 1-A; LaVerne L. Dewey, 1-A; Roy W. Cameron, 1-A; Spence L. Seaman, 1-A; Richard C. Lintz, 4-A; Vernon R. Wilcox, 1-A; and Harold G. Ekblad, 4-A.

LOCAL OFFICE
TO AID VETSEmployment Office To Help Returning Vets
To Find Jobs

An expanded job placement service for veterans was announced here yesterday by Michael G. Heinz, manager of the Manistique office of the United States Employment Service, 125 South Cedar street.

With specially trained personnel and a stream-lined procedure, the WMC's United States Employment Service plans to give quicker service to the returning veteran. From the time the veteran enters a USES office he will be given special attention. Stepped-up procedure in the reception, interviewing, job counseling and referral of veterans will be set up in the USES office, in order to give the returning veteran the best possible service.

"We believe we can give the veteran better service by handling veterans' placement through our regular office with these new special services," Mr. Heinz said. "We are stepping up our veterans' placement activities and cutting down the time which a veteran spends in the USES office."

"We have a veterans' employment representative who is charged with this responsibility. We will be prepared to advise veterans of job opportunities in various fields. We are arranging for special signs to identify the veterans' service and we will attempt to assign as many individuals as necessary to the work of interviewing and referring veterans to jobs. Our veterans' employment representative, too, will assist in promoting the interest of veterans in the community and we will work with employers to develop job orders for veterans."

"The first principle of the USES is to refer the best qualified men on employers' orders. The second principle is, if veterans are not placed because we do not have suitable orders, the USES responsibility is to develop job openings. In this we seek the cooperation of all employers."

Mary Jean Malott To Show Skill At RoleoNo Bids Received For
Project In Marble
Addition

Mary Jean Malott, world's champion woman birler, will come from the west coast to Gladstone to give exhibitions of her skill at the Upper Peninsula Amateur Roleo and Water Festival next Tuesday and Wednesday, July 3-4.

The "Queen of the White Water" first won her title in 1938 at Escanaba and successfully defended it here in 1941 and 1942.

In the amateur roleo there will be two classes, the junior amateur in which the age maximum is 18 and the novice division for youths up to 14. Events will be held for both boys and girls. Any boy or girl birler from any state in the union may try for the title providing they still retain amateur standing.

Entries of out-of-town birlers should be mailed to D. A. Mathison, Roleo chairman, Gladstone, Mich.

Log sawing and chopping contests will be conducted on July 4 and Frank Sirola has formed a team and issues a challenge to any other team of sawyers or choppers. Axes and saws will be awarded as prizes.

There also will be canoe tilting and jousting and other water events.

Swimming exhibitions will be given by talented Nancy Grubb and her coach, Lloyd LeMire of the Minneapolis Athletic club will be here and will be seen in demonstrations of diving.

LeMire is the man who coached Tommy Thompson, who appeared here last summer, and it will be interesting to many to compare the skill of the master with that of the pupil.

SEWER WILL BE LAID BY CITYNo Bids Received For
Project In Marble
Addition

No bids having been received for the construction of a sewer in the Marble Addition, Block 6, the city commission decided Monday evening in regular session that construction would be carried out by city workmen.

City Manager H. J. Henrikson was authorized by the commission to purchase a tractor with loading device and mower attachment. The equipment will cost about $2,200, it is estimated.

The stamp of approval was also put on the proposed bid of the local volunteer fire department to bring the annual Firemen's Tournament to Gladstone in 1947.

Bids will be accepted on two small structures, the old airplane spotting tower atop the city garage and a building on Minnesota between 4th and 5th, both of which are to be removed from the property. Bids will be accepted up until 5 p. m., on Monday, July 9.

HIT NO. 1

Type Of Play Shifts In Two Major Leagues

BY JOE REICHLER
New York, June 26 (AP)—The war has been responsible for a complete transformation in the type of play in the National and American Leagues.

Long recognized as the pitching loop, with accent on defense, the senior circuit has done an about face with the hitters enjoying a banner season this year. The junior circuit also has undergone a face-lifting, switching from a hitters' paradise to a pitchers' league.

A check of the figures today as major league competition was cut to one night game showed that the National League has for the first time since 1929, a distinct batting edge over the American League, .261 to .246, and has more .300 hitters, 17 to 8. Last year was the only one in the past 15 that National outbatted the American, and then only by one point.

Looking over the reasons for this right about face in both circuits, one finds that the war has taken from the American League such renowned sluggers as Ted Williams, Joe DiMaggio, Hank Greenberg, Tommy Henrich, Joe Gordon, Charley Keller, Cecil Travis, Buddy Lewis, Pinky Higgins, Dick Wakefield, John Pesky, Stan Spence, Sam Chipman, Ken Keltner, Bill Dickey, Barney McCosky and Luke Appling.

With few exceptions, the National League slugging brigade has remained, but such name pitchers as Johnny Vander Meer, Clyde Shoun, and Harry Gumbert of the Reds, Johnny Beazley, Howie Pollet, Ernie White, George Munger and Max Lanier of the Cardinals, Hal Schumacher of the Giants, Hi Bithorn of the Cubs, Ken Heintzelman and Bob Kliner of the Pirates, Larry French and Kirby Higbe of the Dodgers, and Hugh Mulcahy and Tom Hughes of the Phillies are wearing Uncle Sam's uniform.

With the loss of most of the American League's star batters, the pitchers have risen to prominence. Last year Hal Newhouser and Dizzy Trout of Detroit set a new two-man modern pitching record of 56 victories; this year they are joined by veterans Dutch Leonard of the Senators, Hank Borowy of the Yankees, Allie Reynolds of the Indians and Jack Kramer of the Browns, all prospective 20-game winners. In addition, such newcomers as Dave Ferriss of the Red Sox and Marino Pieretti of the Nats have made things tougher for the batters.

YANKEES CLOSE IN ON DETROIT

Victory Over St. Louis,
5-4, Opens Three
Game Series

St. Louis, June 26 (AP)—The New York Yankees shaved a half-game off Detroit's first place margin tonight as they defeated the St. Louis Browns, 5 to 4, in the first of a three-game series.

It was the Yankees' first victory at Sportman's Park since July of last year.

The Yankees breezed into a 3-to-0 lead in the first two innings with a five-hit attack off Al Hollingsworth who was wild and ineffective.

The summary:
New York . . . 210 010 010—5 12 1
St. Louis . . . 003 010 000—4 8 1
Dubiel, Drescher, Zuber and Garbark; Hollingsworth, Shirley and Mancuso.

Sandlot Pitcher, 17, Optioned By Tigers

Detroit, June 26 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers announced tonight that Pitcher Bill Pierce, 17-year-old product of the local sandlots, has been optioned to Buffalo of the International League on a 24-hour recall basis.

Pierce thus rejoins his pal, Art Houtteman, another youthful sandlotter who was optioned to the Bisons ten days ago.

After two days of idleness the Tigers return to Briggs stadium tomorrow evening for a twilight tilt with the Washington Senators. Paul (Dizzy) Trout, seeking his eighth victory, will face Emil (Dutch) Leonard, Washington knuckleball artist who eliminated Detroit on the final day of last year's pennant race.

All Star Team To Practice Tonight

The all star baseball team will practice tonight at the 23rd street diamond, Manager Al Ness has announced. Thursday evening Al's Rookies will meet Phil's Cubs in a city league game.

Because of work on the athletic field diamond, games and practice sessions will be played on the 23rd street diamond until further notice.

N'YAWK SERIES HOPES SPUTTER

Both Giants And Yanks
Have Run Into Difficulties

By AL VERMEER
NEA Staff Correspondent

New York—Joe McCarthy and Mel Ott sit glumly in their dugouts and New York fans mumble with alarm as their dreams of a "subway world series" slowly fall into tatters. To be sure, the Yankees and Giants still remain in the heavy fighting. But there are unmistakable signs of collapse on both sides.

One month ago when the ODT hinted there would be no fall classic unless both flag winners came from the same city, the Yankees and Giants figured they had a happy solution to the problem. Today they are not so sure.

The Giants, who threatened all records with their amazing start, have exploded with a thud which shakes the durable old Polo Grounds. People in Boston, watching the Braves smear the New Yorks twice in one day, wagged their heads and wondered how such a ball club ever made its way into first place. Some New York fans wonder, too, as the Giants' six-game lead slowly melts to the size of an ice cube.

Failure of Bill Voiselle to stay close to his early pace has been the most damaging blow. After winning eight straight, the husky righthander limped home empty-handed in his last six starts. And he celebrated 2 and 0 pitch to Johnny Hopp, which cost the Giants a ball game and cost Voiselle 500 clacker, has not added to the club's peace of mind. To say it quickly, the Giants have the jitters.

The Yankee balloon was badly punctured when Johnny Lindell swapped his baseball pants for Army khakis. This leaves the erstwhile Bombers with an outfield of Martin, Derry and Meheny, and an aching memory of the old DiMaggio-Keller-Henrich combine which once graced the Stadium. More and more it appears Marse Joe must bank on pitching to outlast the Tigers, Browns and others. This is a departure from the old custom which found the Yanks booming away with an occasional big inning to ease the hurler's burden.

Asked just how much Lindell's loss would affect his chances, McCarthy held up a weary hand and said: "If talking about it would bring Johnny back, I'd be willing to sit here all night and discuss it. But it won't help and I'd be much obliged if you wouldn't even mention it."

And he trudged through the clubhouse tunnel to his seat in the dugout.

Oil City, Wis., Is Just A Ghost Town

Ontario, Wis.—Just four miles from this northern Wisconsin village is Oil City, a "ghost" town which is nearly twice as large as thriving Ontario. At the end of the Civil War, promoters sunk a barrel of oil in the ground, drilled, "discovered oil," and the booming Oil City grew up over night. A dozen corporations were formed by the promoters, but the truth was learned, and Oil City died.

Several of the abandoned "oil" wells are now flowing artesian wells. The Ontario area is noted for Genseng gardens, plants grown on odd silt-covered hillsides for medicinal roots.

The Sports Parade

By Ken Gunderman

The Western conference football teams have lopped 36,540 passenger miles off their 1945 transportation requirements and the schedules now are so compact that all travel can be done in coaches and most of the trips made in day-time runs. In actual mileage the conference teams will travel 10,378 miles, as compared with 19,422 last season. Passenger miles have been reduced from 679,770 in 1944 to 643,230 in 1945. A total of 35 players, coaches and trainers are allowed to a travelling squad.

High school teams in the upper peninsula are not planning any general revision of their schedules for 1945 because the transportation of athletic teams in this area does not conflict with the flow of essential war equipment or passengers.

Hunting And Fishing

By Sid Gordon

BULLHEADED MUSKIES
In the previous story we very carefully explained that one should never go muskie fishing. They never hit, but if a man is wise enough to cast a muskie rig for bullheads once in awhile I have known muskies to hit his lure.

From the time muskie season opens until the lakes divide into three layers, about June 10, a fisherman will find muskies "all over the place." If the waters are suited for them, they will be in soft water, medium and hard water lakes.

But after June 10, the waters begin to warm up and the tiny plants, specks which we see floating in the water, begin to multiply very fast. The hard water lakes and even some medium water lakes get so full of this plankton, which the fishermen call "bloom" that muskie fishing is a tough proposition.

Not until late September does the water clear and sometimes this bloom persists until October. That is why the old timers fish the hard water lakes as soon as the muskie season opens until the heavy bloom comes on in July. He fishes them again in the fall when the bloom is off.

There are many lakes which do not bloom heavily and the fisherman turns to them for his July, August and September fishing or fishes them straight through from spring until fall. He turns also to river fishing where the current keeps the water fairly clear and the oxygen is plentiful all summer long in running water.

Chains of soft water or dark water lakes, flowages and large bodies of dammed up water are good all year around homes for muskies. In each locality the guides know their waters and will put you on the best water according to the season. The fisherman who cannot afford a guide must learn muskie waters by trial and error and this sometimes requires many seasons.

The last few years, since guides have been scarce, the resort owners have directed their guests as best they could but they haven't the time to take them out in their boats.

Muskies are hungry now and will hit skinner spoons, Johnson spoons and other varieties, jeweled, plain or colored. The bucktail gangs are good and one never knows just when a wooden or plastic plug will be taken in any size from the smallest to the largest in just about any color.

If you cast large lures, remember that a light line wears quickly with heavy spoon or plugs. Use a 24-pound or heavier test line for heavy lures and set that hook hard when they hit. But always fish for bullheads and work the weed beds and the reefs right now.

I had a friend who fished for muskies for 10 years and never caught one. When I had him trained to fish bullheads, he cast more carelessly and his nerves relaxed. From then on he had to fight to keep them out of his boat.

sengers. Most athletic teams will travel by private automobiles on highways that are not clogged by military movement. The restrictions against the use of school buses for transporting athletic teams continue in effect, but the increased A card ratings for private automobiles considerably eases the transportation problem for high schools.

The end of the war in Germany has spurred the promotion of living war memorials in many sections of the United States, but thus far no upper peninsula community has announced any plans for the establishment of new public facilities in tribute to their fighting men and women. The planning of living war memorials should be done now, so that work can be started on these projects at the earliest possible date after the fighting ceases in the Pacific.

Thousands of new playgrounds, parks, swimming pools, athletic stadia, health centers, recreation centers, etc., will be constructed in the postwar period as living war memorials, in contrast to the epidemic of plaques, statues and monuments that were erected all over the country after World War 1.

Hank Greenberg's return to the Detroit Tigers lineup next Sunday will be watched with keenest interest in baseball circles everywhere. If Greenberg returns to anything like the Hammering Hank of pre-war days, the Tigers are virtually a shoe-in in the American league. Most sport fans are hopeful that four years absence from the diamond has not deprived Greenberg irreparably or deprived him of the hitting power that made him the top salaried star of the diamond before his entry into military service.

Grand Marais

Grand Marais, Mich.—Mrs. John Taylor and daughter, Sylvia of Phoenix, Arizona, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Champion. Mrs. Taylor is a sister of Mr. Champion.

Levi McCuller is spending the week in Detroit. On his return he will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Kerrigan, former residents of Grand Marais, who are returning to make their home here. They will live, for the present, with Mrs. Kerrigan's sister, Mrs. M. Thomas.

Mrs. R. Pell has returned from Newberry where she spent two weeks at the William Campbell home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Soldenski of Marquette were recent callers here at the Valentine Soldenski home.

Mrs. Emma MacDonald and family have moved into the Green Shingles Inn which they recently purchased from Mr. and Mrs. B. Trudell. The Trudells have owned and operated the Inn for the past 16 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clairmont of Iron River, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Clairmont's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Forest L. Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Newberg and sons of Detroit are visiting Mr. Newberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Newberg.

The fish and storage house being constructed on the bay is for Frank Champion and not the Grasser Fish Company as previously reported.

Mrs. Edward Bennett and son, Paul, are expected home this week from Escanaba, where the child was a patient at St. Francis Hospital.

For the summer months, the schedule for masses at Holy Rosary church, Grand Marais, will be at seven thirty and ten o'clock, Father LaMothe has announced.

The following men went to Marquette Sunday for first, second and third degree initiation in the Knights of Columbus: Parmer

Field or 45 Tunes Up For Chicago's $12,300 Golf Meet

BY JERRY LISKA

Chicago, June 26 (AP)—A select field of 31 professionals and 14 amateurs tomorrow begin a ring-around-the-rosy tune-up for the $12,300 Chicago Victory national open golf tournament at Calumet country club, Friday through Saturday.

Such noteworthy drive-for-dough chaps as Byron Nelson, Harold (Jug) McSpaden, Sam Byrd, Craig Wood and Jimmy Hines tomorrow and Thursday will team up with amateur, senior and women stars in a 36-hole whirligig for three different titles.

Some 31 foursomes will set out for the pro-woman, pro-amateur and pro-senior championships. The former is up for grass because Lt. Patty Berg of the Marines will be unable to compete. The red-headed Minneapolis star last year teamed with Johnny Revolta of Evanston, Ill., for the pro-woman title.

Also undefended is the pro-amateur championship, because Steve Kovach, Pittsburgh steel-worker, turned pro since teaming with Ky Laffoon to win that phase of last year's meet. Revolta who also shared the pro-senior title last season, teamed with George Hardy of Evanston.

Another war-caused absentee will be Lt. Ben Hogan of the Army Air Force who like Lt. Berg was unable to obtain leave for the tournament. Hogan starred in last year's open, deadlocking McSpaden for first at the end of the regulation 72 holes of medal play. Jug measured Ben, however, in the playoff.

Offsetting the loss of Hogan was a report that Slammin' Sam Snead might try to test his fractured arm in the victory. He suffered the injury just before the Philadelphia Enquirer invitation two weeks ago. Meet officials were not too hopeful, though, that Snead would appear.

The 72-hole showdown over the rambling Calumet course will be a sharp test for Nelson, leading winter tour money winner, who has been shut out of top money since the meet began three years ago. Byrd, who handed Nelson a nine-hole licking in the Big Fore at Detroit last week-end, won the first Victory national and then McSpaden and Hogan stole the show last year.

Ike Was Fielder And Batted .355

New York, June 26 (AP)—General Dwight D. Eisenhower's secret is out. The genial general revealed at the Polo Grounds a week ago that he played professional baseball more than 30 years ago, but refused to divulge any further information except that he played in the "Kansas State League" under the name of "Willson."

A check showed that A. D. Willson played nine games for Junction City in the Central Kansas Class D League in 1911, a year before General Ike entered West Point, and batted a cool .355 while fielding flawlessly in the outfield.

KELLY TO FACE MANY OPENINGS

State Fair And Mackinac Park Appointments To Be Made

Lansing—Gov. Kelly will find many vacancies in the next 45 days on boards and commissions. The term of Fred C. Striffler, budget director, expires June 30. Many expect the governor to re-appoint him.

Kelly may ask William J. Norton, Detroit, and Paul M. Knudstrup, Manistee, to continue on the hospital commission. Their terms expire July 1. Under the 1945 act the commission is to be reorganized in September.

There will be two vacancies on the corrections commission. The terms of Leslie P. Kefgren, Bay City chairman, and William L. Fitzgerald, Kalamazoo, secretary, expire July 23.

Other terms ending in the near future include Philip Weiss, Detroit, member of the labor mediation board; George F. Fitzgerald, Detroit social welfare commission; and Gerald J. Cleary, Escanaba, member of Mackinac Island state park commission. Cleary probably will be succeeded by Dr. E. A. Ward of Saginaw.

Appointments also are in order on the board of accounting, apple commission, Monroe port authority, cosmetology board, board law examiners, planning commission, plumbing board, managers of the Upper Peninsula state fair, state board for libraries, state advisory council of health, international bridge authority and Detroit port authority.

Equalization Hits Snag; Expect Report Thursday

The establishment of Delta county's equalized value in the cities and townships for county tax purposes hit a snag in yesterday's county board session and will delay a report of the equalization committee to Thursday night.

The committee was in session most of Monday, opening day of the board meeting, and was in session until 6 o'clock yesterday evening without reaching an agreement.

Supervisor Allen Mercier, chairman of the committee, reported that the committee "had a couple of little things to iron out" before it made a report. He moved for an adjournment of the board to 7 o'clock Thursday night and this was adopted.

Last year the county board, in equalization committee, met nearly four days before reporting. The report was adopted only after much discussion, and over "no" votes cast by Gladstone supervisors and by Escanaba Supervisor Peter N. Logan.

Yesterday Supervisor Mercier as chairman of the equalization committee, revealed that the problem of equalization had been approached by the committee "from all angles."

He also revealed the assessed valuation total for the county as reported by the boards of review for the townships and cities of Escanaba and Gladstone. This total is $17,830,999. This is an increase of $1,981,189 over last year's board of review figure totaling $15,849,810.

Information from other sources revealed that the committee yesterday sought to increase the equalized valuations of the cities and townships, but except for the city of Escanaba, lacked factual information on which to arrive at a decision. Escanaba recently completed a reappraisal of all properties and has on record all the desired information needed to support its contention that its assessed valuation as reported by the board of review is correct and should not be materially changed by equalization for county tax purposes.

The assessed valuation figure reported by the Escanaba board of review is approximately $9,212,340.

Since the total assessed valuation reported by all units for 1945 is $17,830,999 this would leave Gladstone and the townships showing only $8,618,659, compared with Escanaba's $9,212,340.

Unofficially it was reported that Escanaba supervisors who are members of the equalization committee yesterday were holding out for not more than 40 per cent of the county's total equalized valuation. For many years the taxpayers in Escanaba have been paying over 50 per cent of the county's tax burden.

This and other business before the committee, including a close study of valuations placed on the books of some townships by their supervisors as assessing officers, kept it in session for the whole day. Meanwhile supervisors not on the equalization committee momentarily waited in the board chambers for the committee's report as the afternoon passed.

Several times it appeared the committee might arrive at an agreement yesterday. At other times there was open talk by members of the committee that a disagreement was possible, with a minority report possible from the Escanaba members of the committee.

Chairman Mercier's report that only minor difficulties stood in the way of an agreement was received as an indication that the Thursday night meeting will be the last that will be necessary on equalization this year.

Mrs. Wagner Dies At Escanaba Home

Mrs. Margaret Wagner, 84, widow of Nicholas Wagner, died at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at her home at 402 South Fifteenth street. She had suffered a stroke last Saturday. Mr. Wagner passed away 15 years ago.

Born May 17, 1861, at Mayen, Germany, Mrs. Wagner came to this country when she was 19 years of age, and has been a resident of Escanaba for 64 years.

She was a member of W. C. O. Foresters, St. Marys Camp.

Surviving are the following children: Mrs. A. O. (Anna) Fulbach of Milwaukee, Otto of Escanaba, Mrs. Percy (Margaret) Miller of Escanaba, Mrs. R. (Ursula) Braasch of Milwaukee, Mrs. Fred (Gertrude) Photenhauer of Menominee, John of Escanaba, and 16 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. One sister also survives in Germany.

The body will lie in state at the Alto funeral home chapel Wednesday evening. Funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock Friday morning at St. Joseph's church with the Rev. Fr. Alphonsus officiating. Burial will be made in St. Joseph's cemetery.

forces in February, 1942, and has served overseas since August 1943. In addition to the Meritorious Service Patch, he is authorized to wear the European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign ribbon with three campaign stars.

Poor Digestion? ☐ ☐
Headachy? ☐ ☐
Sour or Upset? ☐ ☐
Tired-Listless? ☐ ☐

Do you feel headachy and upset due to poorly digested food? To feel cheerful and happy again your food must be digested properly.

Each day, Nature must produce about two pints of a vital digestive juice to help digest your food. If Nature fails, your food may remain undigested—leaving you headachy and irritable. Therefore, you must increase the flow of this digestive juice. Carter's Little Liver Pills increase this flow quickly—often in as little as 30 minutes. And, you're on the road to feeling better.

Don't depend on artificial aids to counteract indigestion—when Carter's Little Liver Pills aid digestion after Nature's own order. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills as directed. Get them at any drugstore. Only 25¢.

HERE'S HOW YOU CAN PROFIT BY UNCLE SAM'S EXPERIENCE!

Do as the Army did—treat your car with CISCO SOLVENT

Here's a success story of a famous Cities Service product—CISCO SOLVENT—which should be of great interest to you. For it points the way to better, more efficient performance for your car!

This is how it happened. A small quantity of CISCO SOLVENT was ordered by the Army for experimental use on the trucks and transport vehicles of a military camp in the South. CISCO SOLVENT was put through every conceivable test—and came out with flying colors!

Since then, Cities Service has sent more than 12,000 gallons of CISCO SOLVENT to this camp alone.

Here's What CISCO SOLVENT Does For Your Car

It cleans the engine internally—gets into every joint and crevice where harmful gum and sludge collect . . . and removes every bit of harmful dirt! The result: new vigor, new pep and power restored to a tired, sluggish motor.

Why not profit by Uncle Sam's experience? Find out what this internal engine cleaner can do to bring new life to your road-weary engine. You'll be amazed at how thoroughly it cleans the engine, the transmission, and the differential—and prolongs the life of all moving parts.

We'll be glad to give you a demonstration of CISCO SOLVENT's remarkable cleansing powers. Drive in to see us . . . today!
